

I'm Comin Home

Peyton Parrish

Just a small town kid, at heart!
How the good times pass so fast
I wish I could go back in time
Life's an hour-glass
If you could hear me cry out for you
I would give anything to come back home, to you!
I'm coming home

Just know that I'm coming home, to you
Just know I'm coming home, today
No matter where that sun will rise
I'm gonna fight for you tonight
Just know that I'm coming home to you

It's the faces back at home
Where we grew up
A small house on a county road
With my boys back home
If you could hear me cry out for you
I would give anything to come back home, to you...
I'm coming home!

Just know that I'm coming home, to you
Just know that I'm coming home, today
No matter where the sun will rise
I'm gonna fight for you tonight
Just know that I'm coming home, to you

I'll never stop fighting for you
I'll never give up on you
I'm coming home, to you
I'll never stop fighting for you
I'll never give up on you
I'm coming home, to you
I'm coming home
I'm coming home!

Just know that I'm coming home, to you
Just know that I'm coming home, today
No matter where the sun will rise
I'm gonna fight for you tonight
Just know that I'm coming home, to you

I'll never stop fighting for you
I'll never give up on you!
I'm coming home, to you!
I'll never stop fighting for you
I'll never give up on you
I'm coming home, to you
