

Ironside

Peyton Parrish

Shadow in the night with the galley of men who Would put up a fight for the might will land you
Cold across the face, fur coat, and braids too
Cut out any life, any evil that he runs to

I am the fire in the starlight
I am the warrior of Ironside
I am the master of the ancient art
Ready for war...

Vikings!
Stand your ground!
Hold! Hold! Hold!
Shield wall!

I am the fire in the starlight
