

Refuse It All

Peyton Parrish

I won't let you have my life
I won't let myself go blind
I don't align with what is right

So cold, so alone
I refuse it all

I refuse it all
If it meant I would be fine
I refuse it all
If I knew I would be saved
I'm stuck in my ways
Why can't I change
I can't breathe with what's around me
Refuse it all
My hands are chained by the damnation you show

I won't let my soul divide
I won't let you win this fight
I won't confine my own mind

So cold, so alone
I refuse it all

Refuse it all
If it meant I would be fine
I refuse it all
If I knew I would be saved
I'm stuck in my ways
Why can't I change
I can't breathe with what's around me
Refuse it all
My hands are chained by the damnation you show

The devil wants me dead
I can hear the voices in my head
The devil wants my soul
Under the fire in the earth below
The devil wants me dead
I can hear the voices in my head
The devil wants my soul
Under the fire in the earth

In the earth

My flesh is telling me to burn
My flesh is telling me to burn
My flesh is telling me to burn
My flesh is telling me to burn
Welcome to my domain

Lost inside my head
Will this be my death
Why can't I break off these chains
Oh God

I refuse it all

If I knew I would be fine
I refuse it all
If I knew I wouldn't be saved
I'm stuck in my ways
Why can't I change
Refuse it all

Refuse it all
If the man I would pay
