

Stuck In The Dark

Peyton Parrish

The moon hangs in the sky
Deep into the night
Watching over me
As if judging me
Wound up alone again
Danger inside my head
In need of a friend
As I lay in this empty bed

Stuck in the dark
Suffocating, empty my heart, oh heart
Bring me to life
I just can't feel anything anymore
I just feel trapped in my head
Stuck in the dark
Empty my heart

(Can anyone hear me?)

Blood rings in my ears
Darkness covers my eyes
Is someone there? Does anyone care?
Do I just ignore the signs?
Going through the motions of a life
Never thought I'd make it this far
All of the motions, all of the vain
As the silence of your absence fades away
Why am I

Stuck in the dark
Suffocating, empty my heart
Bring me to life
I just can't feel anything anymore
I just feel trapped in my head
Stuck in the dark
Empty my heart

Stuck in the dark
Suffocating, empty my heart
Bring me to life
I just can't feel anything anymore
I just feel trapped in my head
Stuck in the dark
Empty my heart
Empty my heart
