

Time Bomb

Peyton Parrish

Here I stand with the weight of the world on my chest
Still I fight with the struggle my mind never rests
They see a mask but never the pain I invest
With every line, every rhyme, every time I confess
They say two for the money but nothin' is free
And every moment in time is a chance to achieve
I'll rise no matter the shit you believe
I'm not dying for you I'm just livin' for me

You lit my fuse I'm counting 321
Yeah

I'm going off like a time bomb
I got my war paint on and I'm ready DEFCON
I set the pace you chase and now I'm long gone
I'm counting 321 I'm going off like a time bomb
I'm going off like a time bomb

Had to lose, had to fall just to open my eyes
I had to break these chains just to come alive
When they bruise and abuse keep my eye on the prize
So the scars I wear give me a reason to fight ya know

You wanna say it to my face now
But you never keep the truth inside
You wanna taste a little pain yeah
You wanna say it to my face come on come on

I'm going off like a time bomb
I got my war paint on and I'm ready DEFCON
I set the pace you chase and now I'm long gone
I'm counting 321 I'm going off like a time bomb

I will not back down
I'll go round and round
Adrenaline's got me (rushing) high

It doesn't matter what you say
'Cause now I'm gonna detonate
I'm counting 321
I'm going off like a time bomb
I got my war paint on and I'm ready DEFCON
I set the pace you chase and now I'm long gone
I'm counting 321 I'm going off like a time bomb

I'm going off like a time bomb
I'm going off like a time bomb
