

Viking Slayer

Peyton Parrish

Sagas will be told
Myths will fall to legend
Stories of the bold
Glory from the heavens
Blood soaked in the sand
Kingdoms burn in fire
Shadows of the dead
Flames are rising higher

From the northern fjords
We shall raid and plunder
Echoes from the deep
Battle drums or thunder
Through eternity
Bring forth the mighty hammer
Raise the banners high
Bring forth the viking slayer

Vikings
Shield wall

Gather up your shields
The halls have called your name
Unleash your mighty sword
And make history

Gather up your shields
The halls have called your name
Unleash your mighty sword
And make history

Viking slayer

Ravens in the sky
Horses start to tremble
Vikings have arrived
Inside their continental
Upon the fortress gates
The arrows detrimental
The wolves in the night
The enemy assembles

From the northern fjords
We shall raid and plunder
Echoes from the deep
Battle drums or thunder
Through eternity
Bring forth the mighty hammer
Raise the banners high

Vikings
Shield wall

Gather up your shields
The halls have called your name

And make history

Gather up your shields
