

Why Is Love So Hard

Peyton Parrish

Are you happy with the way our love is
Can I make it up to you
But you'll see we're no more better off without love we share
Pack your bags to leave
As you walking out to the front door

Will I fall over
Picking up pieces of you
Will I find closure with myself
Can I go any higher, higher, higher
Can I go any higher, higher, higher
Enough to catch my breath

(Enough to catch my breath)

Can you feel me when you say you're lost
And the dark tries to pull me away from you
But I stay were no more better off without love we share
How did we end up here

Will I fall over
Picking up pieces of you
Will I find closure with myself
Can I go any higher, higher, higher
Can I go any higher, higher, higher

Just hold on a little
Hold on a little longer
Hold on a little longer
Don't let our love flatline
Why is love so hard
Why did you leave
Was it me

Was I not there for you
Will I fall over
Picking up pieces of you
Will I find closure with myself
Can I go any higher, higher, higher
Can I go any higher, higher, higher

Just hold on a little
Hold on a little longer
Hold on a little longer
Don't let our love flatline
Why is love so hard
I'm losing my grip so low
Just hold on it won't be long
