

Move In Silence

Phantogram

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
I don't blink with my eyelids
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

So I guess that's why you came
Champagne for the fade out
Cocaine and a little clout
So now who's the one to blame
All the kids that you kicked out
Or the loved ones you spit out

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
I don't blink with my eyelids
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

Now remember how you came
You were walking on two feet
Now you're crawling on both knees
Do you ever fall asleep
And you wake up in a dream
Where your life is where it should have been
A reflection in your mind
Turning water into to wine
Did you think you'd make a fool of me

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
I don't blink with my eyelids
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
I don't blink with my eyelids
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

Where have I been
Have I been here before
Where have I been

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

I move in silence
All I grew up was violence
All I see is a memory
So blinded by guidance
I don't trust anyone that I know

I don't trust anyone
I don't trust anyone that I know
