

Running Through Colors

Phantogram

Was I alone
Or were you on the phone
I don't know if I recall
Or maybe in the field
Was that even real
Feeding all your animals
The dying setting sun
Rolling in the night
Long live the dark hours
I feel it come to life
Rolling in the night
Night

Running through these colors
Forgetting what I knew
Chasing down the memory
The memory of you
A recollection
A faded dream
Your face is lost in a crowd
Just a reflection
Deep blue and green
You're just a memory now

Thinking of the spring
That song you sang to me
A voice I now can't recognize
Losing everything
In a hyper color dream
Fading into black and white
Hey if I could have it all
I'd hold you in my arms again
Long live the dark hours
Our Kamikaze hearts
Are flying in the night
Night
Night

Running through these colors
Forgetting what I knew
Chasing down a memory
The memory of you
A recollection
A faded dream
Your face gets lost in a crowd
Just a reflection
Deep blue and green
You're just a memory now

Running through these colors
Forgetting what I knew
The memory of you
A recollection

Deep blue and green

Running through these colors
Forgetting what I knew
The memory of you
A recollection
