

Suzie

Phantogram

Here is where Suzie flew
After she said goodbye
A thousand shades of blue
In her electric eyes
Into the outer light
The wings go to space
Listen for the sound
Of you

Here is where Suzie fell
Into your bloody hands
Hoping to fly away
Before she's hypnotized
Staring into your eyes
Your face is all out of place
Melting into the leaves
Giving to the trees
