

This Is What You Get

Phantom Planet

This time, I'll get so down
My own two feet won't stand on concrete ground
I'll see it caving in from all around
I may not look the same
I'll smile and chat and answer to my name
But if I'm bad, I don't deserve the rain

Oh, that's what you get
That's what you get, that's all
Oh, that's what you get
That's what you get, that's all
Oh, that's what you get
That's what you get, that's all
Oh, that's what you get
That's what you get, that's all
