

Dead Of Night

Phantom

Try to scream the words run dry
At times it seems the world has dies
There's nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Darkness devours the light
It raises your hair so now you're running scared
You hide your eyes from the dead of night

Hoses seem to stare blankly in the night
Like tombstones in a graveyard at each side
What follows you down the darkened street so pale
Pray it's a dream as your legs starts to fail
It raises your hair, there's no end insight
You hide your eyes from the dead of night

The silence screams and roars inside your ears
The darkness tears at all your primal fears
Your heart starts to pound as the world fades from sight
Darkness devours the light
It roars in your head now you're running scared
But you can't hide from the dead of night
