

5AM

Phantoms

Hey

Let's fast forward to the finish line
Fast forward for more peace of mind
Are we really here to waste our time?
I'm wonderin' if I should call you mine
I know you been workin' overtime
Always competin' like you'll win the prize, but
You see my body in the candlelight
Stay seekin', baby, don't you hide from me

'Cause you been runnin' around 'til 5 AM, on my mind 'til 5 AM
Sure to hit my line again if you're just here to play pretend
'Cause you want me
If you're fakin', would you be sorry?

We been pillow talking, I can feel you soften
When you're on my body, you say I'm your only option
Are your feelings honest? Or is it just a pillow promise?
We keep makin' plans with my legs wrapped in your hands
Baby, help me understand 'cause I'm falling for you fast
Tell me, are your feelings honest? Or is it just a pillow promise?
Promise, yeah

I don't wanna miss you
I'll be here before I don't wanna see you
With other girls no more
At first, I thought that I was cool
But now, I'm sure that I can't handle that

'Cause you been runnin' around 'til 5 AM, on my mind 'til 5 AM
Sure to hit my line again if you're just here to play pretend
'Cause you want me
If you're fakin', would you be sorry?

We been pillow talking, I can feel you soften
When you're on my body, you say I'm your only option
Are your feelings honest? Or is it just a pillow promise?
We keep makin' plans with my legs wrapped in your hands
Baby, help me understand 'cause I'm falling for you fast
Tell me, are your feelings honest? Or is it just a pillow promise?
Promise, yeah
