Ah man...

"Man I ain't seen shit"

Anyway listen man we're gonna wait for the turn around to come around

Mike! Yeah man, pay attention. We're gonna wait for the turn around to come around, we're gonna start the drums on the one...

Yeah, right after that we're gonna start and then I'm straight where the vocal comes in

They robbed us blind

And dragged us through mud

They snatched our hearts, ha

And drained the blood

And now we're damaged

Damaged

We're damaged

We're damaged

Damaged

We're Damaged

Yeah, could you dig it?

Ay who the fuck stole my Malboros, man
