

Going Back To VA

Pharrell Williams

Ooh, back to V.A
Ooh, back to V.A

Go on and light that exotic
Crack open that Chardonnay
The only place that I think about
One thousand miles away

Some stupid reason I left home
Though it could've been minimum wage
Still there's nothing you can say

I'm going back to V.A
I'm going back, I'm going back
I'm going back to V.A. (Back to V.A.)
I'm going back, I'm going back
I'm going back to V.A. (Back to V.A.)

Hold on before you get started
Got something I wanna say
When tragedy comes to shake our world
We all hold hands and we pray

That's the way that we were raised
I can't help it's in my veins

I'm going back to V.A
I'm going back, I'm going back
I'm going back to V.A. (Back to V.A.)
I'm going back, I'm going back
I'm going back to V.A. (Back to V.A.)

(I miss the blue) Angels flying sky high

(And they'll be new) Angles for new memories and good times

I just spec'd out my apartment
And now I'm closing the shades
I never felt that I fit in here (Always weird)
Ain't coming back here again
