

Just For Fun

Pharrell Williams

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Went through the readings of Edgar Cayce
But it ain't saying what the nation's facing
These guys who kill everybody in sight
Oh, why?
We love vigilantes and villains (We)
But your boss just shut down your feelings
How was that? The straw that broke the camel's back
That's so wack

They tell you from your first breath, your blessing's begun
'Cause you did the work and just like a good son
And you came a long way compared to where you're from
So you already won so right now, this is all just for fun

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

4000 characters on your socials (Yeah)
Pictures and letters have turned you postal
Hit send and if the message don't connect, hit again
Right then (Ooh, ooh)
You ever question the voice talking to you? (Ooh, ooh)
Foreign agents, algorithmic voodoo, you've been had
For years, our country has been under attack
And that's a fact

I tried to give him a reference on the tip of my tongue
To help him sort through all the baggage he brung
If you wanna truly heal, do a transformation
And the work must be done or the rest of this talk is just for fun

(Seize it) You comin' into your season, yeah
Where you win, win and you win, win
And you win, win, and you win, win, win
(Even) Keep it more than even, yeah
Again-gain and again-gain
And again-gain and again-gain-gain
'Cause after all the healing gets inner
I'm balanced mind and even

They tell you from your first breath, your blessing's begun
'Cause you did the work and just like a good son
And you came a long way compared to where you're from
So you already won so right now, this is all just for fun
