Star Trak is in a wonderful place, y'know what I'm sayin'
The Eclipse, that situation is being worked out, know what I'm sayin'
That's my motherfuckin' heart right there
Y'know we got Rosco, God bless him
We prayin' for him, and we appreciate all the letters and shit
And all y'all prayers going out to him and his case
It's a crazy messy thing, but y'know what I'm sayin' like It's just like I told him y'know - I know God ain't bring us th is far to drop us off here, so We 'gon be alright, nigga
