

Watching Machine

Phideaux

I been telling you

All tomorrows will change
I been telling you
I been telling you
Everything's getting strange

It's a watching machine
It's a watching machine
Yeah

We are viewing the world
Through antennae eyes
We can see who you are
Isn't that nice?

Before we had war
But now

We have sight
It's a watching machine
And it knows what it's seen
Yeah

We are watching you now

From remote satellite
And we've seen it all in the surveillance light
Now the walls have eyes
Isn't that great?
Once there was a choice
But now it's too late

It's a watching machine
And it's cold and it's mean
Yeah
It's a watching machine
It's a watching machine
Yeah
It's a watching machine
It's a watching machine
Yeah
