

Destroyed

Phil Campbell And The Bastard Sons

We don't need your authority
No way, fuck you
Get your face from in front of me
No time for you
Don't wanna listen to a word you say
We say, fuck you

Money is everything, so let's just go to war
Won't live forever, destroy

We don't believe in your policy
No way, fuck you
We won't stand for hypocrisy
More lies no truth
Don't wanna listen to a word you say
We say, fuck you

Money is everything, so let's just go to war
Won't live forever, destroy

We don't need your authority
No way, fuck you
Get your face from in front of me
No time for you
Don't wanna listen to a word you say
We say, fuck you

Money is everything, so let's just go to war
Won't live forever, destroy

We don't believe in your policy
No way, fuck you
We won't stand for hypocrisy
More lies no truth
Don't wanna listen to a word you say
We say, fuck you

Money is everything, so let's just go to war
You promise everything, but then you take it all
Money is everything, so let's just go to war
Won't live forever, destroy
