

High Rule

Phil Campbell And The Bastard Sons

This politician circus
Is burning to the ground
They spun our head in circles
Round, round, round, round
You only care for profit
That's why you run the show
The people are the puppets
Everyone's disposable

I know the truth
I know the truth
I know the truth
It's time for you to testify

Your promises are empty
Your pockets they are full
You steal the land and burn it
Down, down, down, down
Your self-obsessed behavior
Won't end this media war
You're putting us in danger
We're not indestructible

I know the truth
I know the truth
I know the truth
It's time for you to testify

Welcome to a new part of history
Welcome to the age of absurdity
Deja vu, a repeat of history
Welcome to the age of absurdity
Welcome to a new part of history
Welcome to the age of absurdity
Deja vu, a repeat of history
Welcome to the age of absurdity

I know the truth
I know the truth
I know the truth
It's time for you to testify
I know the truth (So testify)
I know the truth (So testify)
I know the truth
It's time for you to testify
