

Kings Of The Asylum

Phil Campbell And The Bastard Sons

You make the rich richer as you steal from the poor
Political scripture triggers another war
Spread misinformation and betray public trust
Callous exploitation grotesque and unjust

You're on the make yeah you're always on the take
Secret love affairs corrupt billionaires
Vulgar success and the power the money the sex yeah

You hold the keys to the asylum
You shout because you don't know how to be silent
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum

You send men to the slaughter as you tighten the noose
Secret new world order just a monkey in a suit
You're the clown the court jester the but of the joke
You let the lies fester and fear you evoke

You're on the make yeah you're always on the take
Secret love affairs corrupt billionaires
Vulgar success and the power the money the sex yeah

You hold the keys to the asylum
You shout because you don't know how to be silent
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum

There's blood in the water you'd better be quick
Like lambs to the slaughter playing your dirty tricks
There's blood in the water they're closing in Sacrifice at the altar for living in sin

You're on the make yeah you're always on the take
Secret love affairs corrupt billionaires
Vulgar success and the power the money the sex yeah

You hold the keys to the asylum
You shout because you don't know how to be silent
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
(Hail the king)
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
(Death to the king)
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
(Hail the king)
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
(Death to the king)
You are the kings of, kings of the asylum
