Well she came looking for me

C

With her arms open wide,

F

C

Like some long lost friend of mine.

F

B

She said 'Excuse me,

C

F B

But do you remember me?

C

F B

I said 'No, I don't believe I do'

C

So she looked me up and down

C

And undressed me with her eyes.

F

Then she said,

B

C

You've got everything I need,

C

You've got everything I want.

F

So I said 'OK,

C

You can wear my hat,

F

You can have my coat,

C

You can take my shirt,

F

'Cause I don't need it.

C

You can wear my shoes,

F

You can take my socks,

C

Come on take my bag it's yours.

C

If you love it,

C

You can have it, if you love it,

C

Ain't no problem, if you love it,

B

C

F

Come on take it, if you love it.

B

So her friend came up to me

C

With a pen and paper in her hand,

F

B

Expressing some interest

C

In the number of my room,

F

B

She said 'Excuse me,

C F

But do you remember me?

B

I said 'No, '

C F B

She said 'Can I appeal to you?'

C

So I looked her up and down.

F B C

And realising her insinuations, I blushed.

F B C F

She said 'Listen babe you don't know me,

B C

No you don't know me but you owe me,

F B C

And I love you,

F B C

Yes, I love you,

F B

Put your arms around me, 'cause I love you,

C F B C

And I got all your records, and I love you.

F

So I suggested,

B C

You can wear my hat,

F

You can have my coat,

B C

You can take my shirt,

F

'Cause I don't need it.

B C

You can wear my shoes,

F

You can take my socks,

B C

Come on take my bag it's yours.

F B C

If you love it,

F B C

You can have it, if you love it,

F B C

Ain't no problem, if you love it,

F B

Come on take it, if you love it.

C

Love it, c'mon love it.
