

Now I Can See

Phil Keaggy

I can feel a warmth inside filling me,
A hand touched my eyes.
Now I believe the Son did rise
And He will be my Everlasting Light.
Now I can see what He wants me to see.
I then shall be like a tree planted by a river.
And I shall not be moved.

Come and walk with Me, He said
Talk with Me, I am your Friend, your Friend.
Greater love hath no man than this;
That a man lay down his life for his friends.
And He did, yes He did.

That was God's love for man.
He took upon Him all of our sins
And this was His plan. His plan.

Now I can feel that warmth inside filling me,
His hand touched my life.
Now I can see what He wants me to see.
I then shall be like a tree planted by a river.
And I shall not be moved.
