Glide Dog

Phildel

Ah, oh, ah

Heartbeats racing through my deep sleep
Heavy as I go
Skin don't mean a thing
Your skin don't mean a thing, no

I need more blood than you can pour, love
More blood than you can pour, love
I need more pain to remember your name
More pain to remember your name

Sharp teeth underneath my coat
I'm hungry as it goes
Shark teeth buried in your throat
We keep it close

'Cause I need more blood than you can pour, love
More blood than you can pour, love
I need more pain to remember your name
More pain to remember your name

Yeah, I'm gonna need this real hurt to give this real worth
Real hurt to give this real worth
I'm gonna need more blood than you can pour, love
More blood than you can pour, love

Cold to describe
I'm dripping in ice
When I glide dog

Glide dog

'Cause I need more blood than you can pour, love
More blood than you can pour, love
I need more pain to remember your name
More pain to remember your name

Yeah, I'm gonna need this real hurt to give this real worth
Real hurt to give this real worth
I'm gonna need more blood than you can pour, love
More blood than you can pour, love
