

Monolith

Phildel

Running through the forest with my feet bare down
The light is gold, I wear your crown
Running through the forest to a heartbeat count
I'm wild and free, I'm with you now

Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Standing like a god, the light falls under it
Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Even in the blue moon, I still wonder it

One black stone hears the way you cry
Nothing but the forest keeps your secrets when you lie
One black stone in the earth
A true north bullet in the dirt

Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Even in our circle, bare skin wonders it
Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Swallowed by your whirlpool, how I plummeted

(Ooh, ooh, ooh)
Wild as I want to be (M-m-monolith)
(Ooh, ooh, ooh)
Rivers, you run to me (M-m-monolith)

Running through the forest with my feet bare down
The light is gold, I wear your crown
Running through the forest to a heartbeat count
I'm wild and free, I'm with you now

Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Standing like a god, the light falls under it
Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Even in the blue moon, I still wonder it

One black rock in the dirt
Smooth stone knows just what your body's worth
One black rock and the way you cry
Nothing but the forest wants your body when you die
(When you die)

(And I'm)
Running through the forest with my feet bare down
The light is gold, I wear your crown
Running through the forest to a heartbeat count
I'm wild and free, I'm with you now

Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Standing like a god, the light falls under it
Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Even in the blue moon, I still wonder it

I was running from a bad dream in the dark
There's nothing like the big, bad scream in your heart
I was running from a bad dream in the dark
No, there's nothing like the big, bad scream in your heart

Mono-mono-monolith
Monolith

Monolith, monolith, monolith, monolith
Even in our circle, bare skin wonders it
Even in the blue moon...
