

Wild Wind

Phidel

Nothing but the wind to bring me home
I know that I truly am alone

Ooh, the wild wind turns
And the feathers that you burn
Leave behind the feeling that it
Ooh, never was enough
No, you never were in love

Mmm, and the feeling dear
Mmm, brings the wild wind here

And it takes me back across the grassy plains
Oh it throws my hair back off my face again
I would never judge your sweetest joys to blame
There's nothing but the wind to bring me home again
Nothing but the wind to bring me home
I know that I truly am alone

Ooh, you're smokin' up the gun
Cause you never were the one
When you really think about it
Ooh, a bullet to my chest
Oh the ache of second best

Mmm, and I'm leaving dear
Mmm, cause the wild wind's here

And it takes me back across the grassy plains
Oh, it throws my hair back off my face again
I would never judge your sweetest joys to blame
There's nothing but the wind to bring me home again
Nothing but the wind to bring me home
I know that I truly am alone

And it takes me back across the grassy plains
Oh, it throws my hair back off my face again
I would never judge your sweetest joy to blame
There's nothing but the wind to bring me home again
