

Back Down

Philmont

Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight

Starting out I felt like I had time
To properly prepare for this climb
Now I've just left,
I'm out of breath
And falling far behind Too tired to run,
but running out of time

Don't look down now
Don't look down

I'm growing tired
of climbing higher
Your love is all I have
to keep me strong
As I'm ascending,
I feel you with me
You wait with
outstretched arms
In case I fall back down

Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight

Every time I take your hand
It seems things just go as planned
Sometimes I feel with two free hands
I may accomplish more
But that's just one more hand to Break my fall when I fall short

Don't look down now
Don't look down

I'm growing tired
of climbing higher
to keep me strong
As I'm ascending,
I feel you with me
You wait with
outstretched arms

Back down, don't you back down baby tonight

Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight

Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight
Back down, don't you back down baby tonight

I'm growing tired
of climbing higher
to keep me strong
As I'm ascending,
I feel you with me
You wait with
outstretched arms
In case I fall

I'm growing tired
of climbing higher
to keep me strong
So keep me strong

Back Down, don't you baby tonight
