

If I left tomorrow, tell me you gon keep it going
Taking care of family, the only thing I'm really knowing
We came out tomorrow, we have to take a shower, keep it clean
Gotta talk 'bout money if these niggas gon speak of me
Save it for a rainy day, lately I've been guilty
Funny, you keep buying all this ice when you ain't filthy
Life slowed me down, had to teach me lessons
Money countin', workin' in the mornin', that's a blessin'
Blessin', blessin', blessin'
God woke me up so that's a blessin'

Waking up this mornin', that's a blessin'
Accept my wins with my losses that's a lesson
Only thing that matter, takin' care of my family
They don't come from where I come from, they don't understand me
Pink slips, titles, and these [?] nigga
You ain't do shit for me so fuck what you need nigga
If I die tomorrow who gon take care [?]
Who gon pay my child support, my baby mama rent?
It's Philth

If I left tomorrow, tell me you gon keep it going
Taking care of family, the only thing I'm really knowing
We came out tomorrow, we have to take a shower, keep it clean
Gotta talk 'bout money if these niggas gon speak of me

Money countin', workin' in the mornin', that's a blessin'
Blessin', blessin', blessin'
God woke me up so that's a blessin'

Look!
Cloud chasing at an all-time high nigga
I could tell he must be high nigga
Rolls truck, cost 4 bucks, still waitin' on it
Meanwhile, copped a Maybach truck, I've been debating on it
Spent a hundred on the yacht, master too
Bitch swallowed nut, I told her "stop" after two
Twenty dollar sho', shit, twenty dollar verse
My bitch want a birk and shit twenty dollar purse
It's Philth
