

End Game

Philthy Rich

Now, this pimpin' is forever, man
But, hey, you can't pimp forever, you know what I'm sayin'?
You can't pimp forever, don't nothin' last forever, man
Every good thing has an end, you know what I'm sayin'?
So a nigga gotta prepare himself for the end game of it, you know what I'm sayin'? (Funk or Die)
A nigga don't wanna go to federal prison and learn how them people really play
And get to get a different outlook
Nigga don't want to go through all that shit (Blame it on Monstah)
You know what I'm sayin'? To really get a real understanding about—

Spendin' every dollar before I make it
Petrified, scared the feds gon' take it
I ain't dropped in a year, focused on buildin' a label
Makin' sure my artists could bring somethin' to the table
I'm inspired by Meek and Lil Baby
I like my bitches real thick and fake crazy
I'm just tryna motivate the streets
I'm a hundred, so I gave my artists a hundred a piece
My ex-bitch keep stalkin' my page
She blocked me, then unblocked me, baby got some childish ways
Yeah, nice guys finish last
Took a honey pack to make sure I don't finish fast
I ain't never did fraud, that's too close to stealing
When you get it out the mud, it's a different feeling
Brand new foreigners what I hop out
He ain't make the cut, he an FOD dropout
She only want you 'cause I gave you motion
My nigga was ashy and I gave him lotion
Just 'cause she look good, don't mean she a good look
Chef Smelly if you lookin' for a good cook
Skinny and Tooohda lost thirty thou' in jewelry a piece
That wasn't nothin', I replaced it in the same week
Them flawless diamonds cost me 40K
But these porcelain veneers cost me 50K, it's Philthy

That's crazy the motherfuckers was ten thousand more
Ayy, man, what nigga from Oakland did it like me?
Put his niggas on so they can put they niggas on? I'm just sayin', though, huh?
Once a nigga lose his motion, he turn emotional
Nigga, I been doin' this shit for ten years straight
I done spent an M with five different jewelers
I done pulled up in every foreign you can motherfuckin' name, nigga
Not to mention the whole city went against me
Let's not forget
Now them same niggas gotta double back
How you burn a bridge and expect a yacht to pull up after? Huh?
Nigga, I've been wearin' Gucci five years straight
All my bitches tens, we don't do sevens
Not to mention the house one-point-five, nigga
It's Philthy
