

Renew Your Pass

Philthy Rich

(Lucci, how you feel? Yeah)
(FOREVEROLLING)

It's stick for stick and lick for lick, make sure you get yours back
I was sleepless, I played defense and I want all of 'em whacked
And I know twenty get a clean hit
Fifty get a nigga walked down in front they businesses
Understand the seriousness
I'm curious who the fuck these niggas think they is Like 'cause they keep a clean cut that I won't split they wig
No way he think he safe from past gangster shit he did
This a new era, and every season you gotta renew your pass

Percocets and fill the tips, you know it's finna get evil
Meet with the counsel, I got power and respect from the demons
We take a dirty twenty-piece and sit it down in the cleaners
Leave the island, what up Ish? You know big bloods in my people
Built an empire in these streets, I'm good at keeping it secret
Watch what you posting or tweet, you end up losing a finger
Been conversating with my mama, know she died for a reason
She know I dream 'bout killin' people, ain't no sense in me sleepin'
Make him camp out and pop X when he think about eatin'
I got 'em spinnin' back-to-back, ain't no time for us grieving
Ain't never slide for yourself, then you can't slide for me neither Ain't think 'bout dyin' for yourself, then you ain't gon' die for me neither

It's stick for stick and lick for lick, make sure you get yours back
I was sleepless, I played defense and I want all of 'em whacked
And I know twenty get a clean hit
Fifty get a nigga walked down in front they businesses
Understand the seriousness
I'm curious who the fuck these niggas think they is (Who the fuck these nigg as think they is?)
Like 'cause they keep a clean cut that I won't split they wig (Big 59, nigga
No way he think he safe from past gangster shit he did (Don't make me press down on you, bitch)
This a new era, and every season you gotta renew your pass (Uh-huh, look)

Off the porch at eleven, so I became a man quick
No role model, father figure, I had to earn my name quick
That's what made me who I am, so I would never change shit
Real street niggas relate, we went through the same shit
It went from petty house licks to dime bags and OZ
Now every house guard gated with new foreigners and no lease
A couple niggas owe me favors, they'll wipe if I sneeze
They can't lose they star player, I'm too valuable for the team
Bitch, I walk around my hood like I ain't famous
Like I know that shit ain't dangerous
Bitch, this Rollie ain't no stainless
Bitch, I walk around my hood like I ain't famous
Bitch, this Rollie ain't no stainless
Bad bitches wanna claim us, it's Philthy
