

Izabella

Phish

Hey Izabella
Girl, I'm holding you in my dreams every night
Yeah, but you know good well baby
You know we got this war to fight
Well, I'm calling you under fire
Well, I hope you're receiving me all right

Hey, Izabella

Girl, I'm fightin' this war for the children and you

Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby!
All this blood is for the world of you
All your love!
So I hope you save your love, baby
Then I know the fightin' is true
