Life in slow motion
Feet are in the clay
I'm goin' nowhere
Been standin' here all day

I had a notion
There was somethin' more to do
As I watched the water
From the banks of the river
It swelled and grew

And I tilt to the left
Lean to the right
Tilt to the left
Lean to the right
Walked on coal
And slept on glass
Emit swords of sap
And daggers of light

And my heart is screamin'
Cause half of what I say is lies
And it takes so much to keep up this disguise
It takes so much to keep up this disguise

I see a doorway in the haze
And I'm tryin' to get to it
The stars are peep holes in a wall
but we can walk thru it

The memory's still so real,
The memory's still so real
I guess it's never really over,
Even when its over

I'm vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light
In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more than this

I'm vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light
In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more than this

The trumpet call is sounding
The trees are bending low
There's a great fire in the distance
There must be something more than this

And our shadows will all be dancing
With red dust on clothes
When we leave that tornado
Upwards in the clouds and feel the sky

I'm vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light

In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more than this
I'm vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light
In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more whoa...

There must be something more than this...

Vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light
In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more than this

Vibrating with love and light
Pulsating with love and light
In a world gone bad, a world gone bad,
There must be something more
