Bitter

Phlake

Tell me if you don't want me to stay
Tell me how you're feeling, it's okay
Tell me if you ever need a break
I will be the first to stay away
So long...

I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter and blue
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter for two
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter

I got [?] by your facade
But when the monsters came I knew
I was in too deep, to back out just like that
Now all I want is payback
But hey, it's not how I play
Guess I ran out of things to say
And I've gotten numb
Still got the poison in me
How can we end this friendly?

It's been a bunch of rollercoaster years
Life in a bubble full of happy tears, so
We almost made it through the stratosphere
We're back but I don't know in how many pieces

I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter and blue
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter for two
I'm not better than you
Did not consider
I'm just different from you

I was tryna love you brought day (outside)
That's a crime and I should've called case (long time)
True say there's already feelings locked away
You weren't really into no drama
But lately you've been doing Madonna (diva)
And I can't recognize your face now
And I come around, visit a hotel lobby
You're in the lobby lounge
Sippen so much I don't know what to call it now
But you like brown liquor, let me get another round
And another round
Never forget that when a love real
Don't know how to suppress that
Living in the comfort of you being an empath
The price payed, bye bye to regrets, but...
(Cause I wanna feel something)

I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter and blue
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter for two
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter
I'm not better than you
I'm just bitter for two
I'm not better than you
Did not consider
