

Lullaby, love in my tones, hmm yeah
Cover lies, up in sly stones
In my chameleon heart
You know I, design a lie for
Fifth on the course
Sleepwalking force
I set, you by false

Dollar signs
Stuck in tied lungs (You noticed, you noticed)
You noticed I, bloody minds
Run color blind soils (You owe this, your focus)
Although you need to swallow that chunk
For my, designer comfort, hmm

Keep going on
Reach out for more
Set your mind off (You owe this, Your focus)
Kicking the doors
Skip the remorse
I'm build to destroy (you know this, you know this)
Keep going on
Reach out for more
Jesus is gone (you know this, you know this)
Preach all you want
I feel no remorse
I'm build to destroy (You owe this, Your focus)

(Keep going on)
I sip on, like jet tours (keep going on)
I'm fit for, your blood spours (keep going on)
My go
As we talk, supreme calls

With a fist full of chunks
I reach out for more
Set my mind off
Kicking the doors
Skip the remorse
I'm build to destroy (you know this, you know this)
Keep going on
Reach out for more
Jesus is gone (you know this, you know this)
Preach all you want
I feel no remorse
I'm build to destroy (You owe this, Your focus)

Next time you feel it's a torn
Get to know them, sometimes you need to fall off
Get to know them before the seasons are lost
Don't keep in stings on a part
Toss em' up and make them unsure
