

A Thousand Ways

Phoebe Ryan

One drink, one night, one evenin'
One fight, one stays, one's leavin'
One's breakin' down, one's sleepin'
One's havin' trouble breathin'

It's stupid to think
Someone will care for you always
Be there for you all the time
'Cause one day, you'll blink
And that's when you learn it the hard way

I think it's safe to say
There's a thousand ways to lose your mind
A thousand ways to bend until you break
It only takes a few
Sometimes, the easiest one is fallin' on your face
Just tryna fight for you and I
A thousand ways to make your worst mistake, yeah
I could name a few right now
The easiest one is you
The easiest one is you
Right now, the easiest one is you

Two hearts, one hurts, that's funny
Two hearts is one too many
To care for one is plenty
Who cares? Not me, I'm petty

It's stupid to think
Someone will care for you always
Be there for you all the time
'Cause one day, you'll blink
And that's when you learn it the hard way

I think it's safe to say
There's a thousand ways to lose your mind
A thousand ways to bend until you break
It only takes a few
Sometimes, the easiest one is fallin' on your face
Just tryna fight for you and I
A thousand ways to make your worst mistake, yeah
I could name a few right now
The easiest one is you
The easiest one is you
Right now, the easiest one is you

It's stupid to think
Someone will care for you always
Be there for you all the time
'Cause one day, you'll blink
And you're gonna learn it the hard way

I think it's safe to say
There's a thousand ways to lose your mind
A thousand ways to bend until you break
It only takes a few
Sometimes, the easiest one is fallin' on your face

Just tryna fight for you and I
A thousand ways to make your worst mistake, yeah
I could name a few right now
The easiest one is you
Oh, oh
The easiest one is you
Oh, ah, ah, ah
Right now, the easiest one is you
