

Be Real

Phoebe Ryan

See, I got myself some intuition
Baby I ain't dumb, my brain ain't missing
I can tell by the way you're turning in your sleep
You've been holding out on me and you better not do that
'Cause I give you all of me, I'm never fronting
And you can't deny that we've got something, yeah
Holding you, touching you, ain't like nothing else
But I can't never tell if you're feeling it, baby 'cause I

Wanna be the only one you trust
Wanna be the only one you love
Wanna be the only one you tell your secrets
Wanna be the one you always call
Wanna be the one you give it all
I wanna be the one

But baby am I enough?
You gotta tell me the deal
You either love me or you do not
So what's up? Just be real
You've been spending your life
Using words like a shield
I know it's easier telling lies
But tonight, just be real

Got a different vibe like every second
It's like constantly I'm second guessing
I've been drinking just to get it off my mind
Pretending everything is fine
It doesn't work, baby 'cause I

Wanna be the only one you trust
Wanna be the only one you love
Wanna be the only one you tell your secrets
Wanna be the one you always call
Wanna be the one you give it all
I wanna be the one

But baby am I enough?
You gotta tell me the deal
You either love me or you do not
So what's up? Just be real
You've been spending your life
Using words like a shield
I know it's easier telling lies
But tonight, just be real

Already know exactly what you really wanna say
And there's no going back so you should say it anyway
It's gotta drive you crazy how you keep it all inside
So take a minute, I can only ask one more time

Baby am I enough? (am I enough?)
You gotta tell me the deal (you gotta tell me the deal)
You either love me or you do not
So what's up? Just be real, yeah
You've been spending your life

Using words like a shield
I know it's easier telling lies
But tonight, just be real

Oh, oh, oh yeah
Oh, oh, oh yeah
