

Fantasy

Phoebe Ryan

It's just a fantasy
It's just a fantasy

I'm seeing colors in my mind
I'm hearing symphonies in silence
I make believe you're here tonight
Pretending's easier than crying

I'm doing my best as far as I can tell
As long as I constantly remind myself

It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's not reality
It's just a fantasy
And it's never gonna be reality

I think your phone is dead again
'Cause when I write you never read it
I've made a monster in my head
And all these lies is what I feed it

I'm doing my best as far as I can tell
As long as I constantly remind myself

It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's not reality
It's just a fantasy
And it's never gonna be reality

La, La, La, La, La, La, La

It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's just a fantasy (dope)
It's not reality
It's just a fantasy
And it's never gonna be reality

La, La, La, La, La, La, La
