

Should I

Phoebe Ryan

You introduce me to your friends by saying I'm a friend
Is that all I am to you?
Oh, what you do that for?
I'm trying to ignore but it really isn't cool

I gave you my heart, I thought you wanted it
Should I take it back? Should I? Should I?
I gave you my love, thought you needed it
Should I take it back? Should I? Should I?

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?
Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or should I never call you again?

Oh, what do I do? What do I say?
I chase after you, but you run away

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?

When you let me in, you tell me everything, lying naked in your bed
But as soon as we wake up, the story's switching up
Is this is the best I'm gunna get?

I gave you my heart, I thought you wanted it
Should I take it back? Should I? Should I?
I gave you my love, thought you needed it
Should I take it back? Should I? Should I?

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?
Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or should I never call you again?

Oh, what do I do? What do I say?
I chase after you, but you run away

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?
Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or should I never call you again?

Oh, what do I do? What do I say?
I chase after you, but you run away

Should I call you baby? Baby, should I call?
Or baby, should I call you a friend?
