I know you're a gamester
But I'm the queen of spades
The ruler of hearts
I shoot for the moon
I take my tricks right from the start
I'm a sucker for love
A joker running wild
My heart it can break, ooh it can break
Frail as a child

Whatever it is, it is
Whatever will be, will be
Whoever you are, you are
Those games that you play,
Don't you play them with me

You're a visionary dreamer
A fool leaving things to chance
Love is a hazard, ooh such a hazard
When you flirt with romance
It's like shooting the dice
Flipping coins in the air
You're running out of luck
The odds are against you if you're not playing fair

Whatever it is, it is
Whatever will be, will be
Whoever you are, you are
Those games that you play,
Don't you play them with me

Whatever it is, it is
Whatever will be, will be
Whoever you are, you are
Those games that you play,
Don't you play them with me
