

Euphoria

Phoenix Effect

Euphoria I'm here
So please come in and help me to deny
To numb my will, some more wine, to help me fly
I'm so afraid to try

Drop your bombs, fire the guns
Do anything you want
Kill the flame, kill the love
You are the chosen one
Losing me, losing you
The only thing I want
But still, you are on my mind

This war keeps going on, but I won't lay down and die
You can strike me down, but I will not live a lie
Live inside these dreams

Euphoria goodbye
Your lies cut deep, but I recognize these feelings
No longer shackled by the time
I used to shine, the light of false beliefs

Drop your bombs, fire the guns
Anything you want
To play the same is to lose the game
So I gave up the hunt
And it's by far the best deed I've done

This war keeps going on, but I won't lay down and die
You can strike me down, but I will not live a lie

Is this the right conclusion
Or just my mind's illusion
Show me cos I don't know where to go
Is this annihilation
Bliss or suffocation
Tell me what I need to know
