

Lately I've been overcompensating
Forging new identities just to fit the placement
What is it?
What is it?

Lately I've been kinda superstitious
Knock on wood for luck of it
Knock again to make it fit
What is it?
Oh, oh, what is it?

So far I've been feeling new
Tantalized for speaking true
I think I have it
Lately I've been on edge
Forced to think without my head
I think I had it
But I'm right back at, at it

This time I'll run, I'll carry a gun tonight
You'll sink my ship goodbye
Next time I'll ride shotgun when you drink and drive
So I can catch a DUI
Stretch marks on my eyes

So far I've been feeling new
Tantalized for speaking true
I think I have it
Lately I've been on edge
Forced to think without my head
I think I had it
But I'm right back at, at it
