

Need A Friend

Phoneboy

You know I'm insecure
I grind my teeth and set out to the floor
Oh-woah-oh, oh
I think I think too much
Wonder if you wonder anymore
Oh-woah-oh, oh

I'm out the door, you're on the bed
I'll find my love in the liquor store instead
Instead

He said, she said, it's bullshit
Well I say we're fighting over nothing
It's always nothing
He said, she said, it's bullshit
Why are we trying to be something
When we're nothing

I think I'm wasting time
When I can't cut you off to save my life
But I lie and say I'm doing alright

I'm out the door, you're on the bed
I'll find my love in the liquor store instead
Instead

He said, she said, it's bullshit
Well I say we're fighting over nothing
It's always nothing
He said, she said, it's bullshit
Why are we trying to be something
When we're nothing

When did our hearts end up faded
Every day felt like vacation
So who can help me feel sedated?
Now

Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end
Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end
Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end
Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end

Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end
Maybe I need a friend
Maybe this needs to end
Maybe I need a friend
