

OMG

Phoneboy

Speeding down another street
Drowning in the summer heat
Your chapstick stains my cheek
I want it back
Sleeping in your parents' room
Only for a week or two
Pretend I live with you
Until they're back

And now that I know
Oh

I just can't take any more
It happens all the time
And I can't go
I'm losing my damn mind
I just can't take any more

Losing track of my old friends
Sleep alone in separate beds
Every word I said
I want it back
Memories across the hall
Cigarettes and outlet malls
Take your picture off the wall
And put it back

And now that I know
Oh

I just can't take any more
It happens all the time
And I can't go
I'm losing my damn mind
I just can't take any more
It happens all the time
And I can't go
I'm losing my damn mind
I just can't take any more

Ooh

Oh my god
I'm in love
And I don't know how long I
Know how long I got
Oh my god
I'm in love
And I don't know how long I
Know how long I got

And now that I know
Oh

I just can't take any more

I'm losing my damn mind
I'm losing my damn mind
