

Red Wine

Phoneboy

At the end of the night
Turn up the lights
And drive me home
Break out of the bar
Fall into your car
We'll be alone

How do I say that it's already over?
That I'll erase you the second I'm sober?
Pour me a drink, spill it all on the sofa
How do I say? (It's fine, I'm fine)

I don't wanna be your friend but I can see you in my bed (Whoa)
Never good at one-night stands, now I think I understand (Whoa)
I don't need to change your mind, I just wanna drink this wine (I swear)
I don't wanna make you mine, I just wanna waste my time (Again)

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa

At the end of the night
Step into the light
And pull me close
If the feeling is right
You say I'm your type
We'll take it slow

How do I say that it's already over?
That I'll erase you the second I'm sober?
Pour me a drink, spill it all on the sofa
How do I say? (It's fine, I'm fine)

I don't wanna be your friend but I can see you in my bed (Whoa)
Never good at one-night stands, now I think I understand (Whoa)
I don't need to change your mind, I just wanna drink this wine (I swear)
I don't wanna make you mine, I just wanna waste my time (Again)

How can you say that it's already over?
That you'll erase me the second I'm sober?
Pour me a drink, spill it all on the sofa
How do I say? (It's fine, I'm fine)

I don't wanna be your friend but I can see you in my bed (Whoa)
Never good at one-night stands, now I think I understand (Whoa)
I don't need to change your mind, I just wanna drink this wine (I swear)
I don't wanna make you mine, I just wanna waste my time again
I just wanna waste my time (Again)
I just wanna waste my time (Again)
