

Something On My Mind

Phoneboy

I can't lie it's in the back of my head
And I can't even try to forget about it
I just wanna take a little piece of my head
Rip it all out and forget what you said
It's so hard, never want what I get Lose my mind in a twin-sized bed
I just wanna feel a heartbeat in my chest
I just wanna feel a heart
Tick tick tick tick

Ooh...

If I can't stand, is the drink too strong?
If I fuck up my plans, I'm an underdog
I just think I need a better reason than this
Wake up every morning and repeat it, I guess
Staring at a number that I'll never call
If I could do it over, would I change at all?
How does anybody really see it like this?
How does anybody really see it like this?

Something on my mind
Something on my mind
All of the time
Can I make it right?
Can I make it right?
Who am I?
Keep me up at night
Keep me up at night
Keep me alive
Something on my mind
Something on my mind
Something on my mind

Ooh...

Anybody talk, anyone at all?
Just another night I can't sleep
Just another sign I can't read
Tell another lie, blame it on my pride
Running out of room I can't breathe
Running out of sound I can't speak
Anybody talk, anyone at all?
Just another night I can't sleep
Just another sign I can't read
Tell another lie, blame it on my pride
Running out of room I can't breathe
Running out of sound I can't speak

Something on my mind
Something on my mind
All of the time
Can I make it right?
Can I make it right?
Who am I?
Keep me up at night
Keep me up at night

Keep me alive
Something on my mind
Something on my mind
Something on my mind

Ooh...

Tick tick tick tick
