

4 The 1st Time.

Phony Ppl

Maybe you walked through my doors
I can make the call, I know I seen your face before
Right?
I coulda swore that I saw you around
Wanna be down, so I walk into the store
Right?
And it is crazy 'cause we do what we do
And every time it feels like deja vu
Right?
Our heartbeats went on and on and on and on and on and on and on
Right?

Feels like I known you from somewhere
(I watch as I met you for the first time)
Feels like maybe I seen you before
Feels like I known you from somewhere
(I watch as I met you for the first time)
Feels like maybe I seen you before

Maybe in our past lives
I'm not falling for disguise
You know I can't forget those eyes
Right?

Right?
We could go round town
To places and shut em down
If you're thinking I'mma stop ya
Right?
Our heartbeats went on and on and on and on and on and on and on
Right?

Feels like I known you from somewhere
(I watch as I met you for the first time)
Feels like maybe I seen you before
Feels like I known you from somewhere
(I watch as I met you for the first time)
Feels like I seen you before

I know the switch when you walk
The accent when you talk
[?] of your thought
Right?
Stored in my mind's camera
The figure from Atlanta
And the swagger from New York
Right?
I'm just hoping we can kick it like go times
Ya dig it baby?
Where ya wanna go?
Right?
Our heartbeats went on and on and on and on and on and on and on
Right?

It feels like I known you from somewhere
(I watched as I met you for the first time)
Feels like maybe I seen you before

(I watched as I met)
Feels like I seen you before
(I watched as I met you for the first time)
Feels like I seen you before
(Right?)
Feels like I knew you from somewhere
(I watched as I met you for the first time)
Feels like I, I, I, I, I
Feels like I seen you before
(I watched as I met you for the first time)
Feels like I seen you before
(I watched as I met)
It's like, first time
First time, it's like I met you for the first time...
