Phony Ppl

Some record labels think like fart
And it's retarded
How they tryna change the artist
Deep into recording they restarted
Like getting back what you asked for
Bad bartend [?]
Talented out the ass
We're not subjects to change
Music roll, float dirty like we just gave it AIDS
We just do our thing
I rap when I want to what I want
(I will sing)
Why can't I say what I want?
Because the label's tryna switch it up?
Well guess what? It's not going down
For the same reason J5 left Motown
As free slaves to the label they made epic music
Do your research, for real, they made epic music
Many came next
But with the legs to do it
Rather remain unsigned and change with the times

Keep up with the times
(Or watch as they go)
Unveil your blinded eyes
(Take a chance 'cause you never know)
It's time to realize that
We have our own minds that
Do what they want to do

Back in this time to rap again
It's the young messiah trappin' them
Other cats just doing their thing, but I'm more passionate
Fire to a few, a match in some gas
Back when I was doing me
They was want me to do what they askin'
I ain't a sucker, I'm in love with good music
Especially if the fans bump to it
Huh, you think I'm stupid
Thinking I'm gone sell out and let the fans down
I am original, that got me where I am now
A band now, Phony Ppl, rocking jam [?]
Sex education for those who don't understand now
How yet they try to label me explicit
Not knowing there's a message in my lyrics
Reflection of my feelings
Real life sex and drug-dealing
Chilling with loose triggers that look so unappealing
Now tell me what's the difference: Phony or being Phony?
At least you got the chance to f... know me

Keep up with the times
(Or watch as they go)
Unveil your blinded eyes
(Take a chance 'cause you never know)
It's time to realize that
We have our own minds that

Do what they want to do

Too sexual for our demographic?

That's like saying that women aren't attractive

And listeners aren't looking at 'em

Hey kids, you wanna know where babies come from? (Where?)

When your mum cums

Nothing to run from

Like we're supposed to be some political activists

And act as if Vanessa Hudgens doesn't leak nasty pics

Like execs don't promote subliminal interests

And Miley Cyrus doesn't take an incest for big checks

Sorry to change your achy-breaky heart

But what we're makin' isn't changin' just to make it to the charts and be famous

And have a name that everybody knows

What is knowing my name if you don't feel us in your soul?

What's the form of expression when there's burdens on my chest and can't say what I want?

According to the people watching us (wow)

Shout out: I've got mad respect for Ralph

So for a second I'll shut my mouth

I'm done

Keep up with the times

(Or watch as they go)

Unveil your blinded eyes

(Take a chance 'cause you never know)

It's time to realize that

We have our own minds that

Do what they want to do
