

Fkn Around (Solo)

Phony Ppl

You got a man, but you're fuckin' around
Risking it all, baby, just to get down
You got a man, but you're fuckin' around
Risking it all, baby, just to get down
Don't know if you know just what you're starting
But I can see you like to play with fire, darling
Your man just hit the bar to grab a chalice for you two
He turned his back just for a second, look at what you do
Sending me the supersonic signal
You ain't lay a finger, but I feel you
Independent woman, I won't tell you how to act
But you and I both know we could be gone 'fore he gets back

You got a man, but you're fuckin' around
Risking it all, baby, just to get down

Looking over your shoulder 'cause you better
If he was standing next to you, you never
I'm not usually one to say what dice for other guys
'Cause if she's even looking he ain't doing something right
Step by step she's dancing, getting closer to me
Get ready sicko, hit own collision
Sides of cardboard coaster in my pocket and raw seeds
To burning up the floor where he expected her to be

You got a man, but you're fuckin' around
Risking it all, baby, just to get down
You know, I know, you're so wrong for
What we've been doing, this place seems to ruin this love thang
(But I'm only half as wrong as you)
You know what I know, you're so wrong for
What we've been doing, this place seems to ruin this love thang
(But I'm only half as wrong as you)
You got a man, but you're fuckin' around

You got a man, but you're fuckin' around
Risking it all, baby, just to get down
