

I Wish I Was A Chair.

Phony Ppl

I wish I was a chair
So I could feel the pressure of your pillow
And if you wonder why I stare
It's 'cause you're sculpted to perfection
Caramel glow complexion
Just the way I like it

I like it
I love you...

Talented hands of a masseuse
Ooh baby, put those to use
And when it's not my day
You make everything okay

You're so fly, you're so cool
You're so fly, you're so cool
Watching you, things you do
You like me, I like you

You're so fly, fly, fly
