

Knew Lipsce.

Phony Ppl

Party
I heard you gon' be there
So I'm gon' be there (be there)
Walked in with my boys
Seen somethin' like I've never seen before
Our eyes met then bodies collided
To form the deepest hug (deepest hug)

How was your day

I want some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
I want some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold

Conversation getting deeper
Standing by the speakers (speakers, speakers)
Away from everybody
Let's move
Cause other guys want you too (you too)
Follow me into the balcony
Where the air is cold
And we can keep each other warm

I want some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
I want some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
(I want some)

The intoxication creates hallucination
That the lights are blinking
And you are speaking directly to my soul
Latched on to one another surviving off of each other's body heat
Vocal volume decreases as physical distance decreases
And we are both speechless and I truly mean this
The magma in your lips got too close to the magma in my lips to resist the risk of the kiss that was inevitable
The sky's right the moonlight illuminates the room right
This couldn't be better
Your lips can't stop long forever forever
Truly your beauty (beauty) has only been one night and you're already something special to me (special to me)

I got some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
I got some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
I got some new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart new heart of gold

(You gave me) new lips to kiss
New hand to hold
New heart of gold
